Contents

	page
Themes in Drama volumes	ix
List of illustrations	x
List of contributors	xi
The Duchess of Malfi: tyranny and spectacle in Jacobean drama by KARIN S. CODDON	1
'Transshaped' women: virginity and hysteria in The Changeling by ARTHUR L. LITTLE JR	19
The confined spectacle of madness in Beys's The Illustrious Madmen by DOMINIQUE FROIDEFOND	43
The male gaze in Woyzeck: re-presenting Marie and madness by ELIZABETH SCHAFER	55
Mental illness and the problem of female identity in Ibsen by A. VELISSARIOU	65
Representing mad contradictoriness in Dr Charcot's Hysteria Shows by DIANNE HUNTER	93
Blanche Dubois and Salomé as New Women, old lunatics in modern drama by KAARINA KAILO	119
Mad Messiah: censorship and salvation in Bulgakov's Flight by ROB K. BAUM	137
Madness and magic in Eduardo De Filippo by MIMI GISOLFI D'APONTE	151

A dramaturgy of madness: Suzuki and the Oresteia
by JOHN J. FLYNN 159

'Mad with love': Medea in Euripides and Heiner Müller
by CHRISTIAN ROGOWSKI 171

Ionesco and textual madness
by ELIZABETH KLAVER 183

Black madness in August Wilson's 'Down the Line' cycle
by MARK WILLIAM ROCHA 191

Madness and political change in the plays of Caryl Churchill
by AMELIA HOWE KRITZER 203

Three recent versions of the Bacchae
by ELIZABETH HALE WINKLER 217

Madmen or specialists? Uses of insanity by Soyinka
by IPSHITA CHANDA 229

Fragmentation and psychosis: Fugard's My Children! My Africa!
by MARCIA BLUMBERG 241

Some African leaders on stage
by OLUREMI OMODELE 255

Madness as a satyrical tool in two Nigerian plays
by ABIODUN GOKE-PARIOLA 271

Index 281